TOM,

THE TREE OF LIFE HAS MANY ROOTS
AS WITH BRANCHES. THE COMPLEXITY OF LIFE
MAY OVERWHELM YOU, BUT DON'T GIVE
IN. LIFE MAY BE HARD, BUT GOING IN
IS WORSE. TO SEE THINGS AS THEY REALLY ARE IS A RARE GIFT WHICH YOU HAVE SHOWN TO POSSESS. YOUR LOGICAL WAY OF SEEING THE TRUTH IS A RARE GIFT. DON'T LOSE IT.

Hi Master,
This year has really went by fast. I owe you the world for tutoring me. I do thank you for being such a nice guy. And your master on you're still a nice guy. And your 10 minutes you're still a nice guy. And your 10 minutes gave you a rude awakening but you paid if Scottie wouldn't have been a rude awakening but you paid if Scottie his help. I wish you the best in your future; cause of course you deserve nothing but the best in your 10 minutes

Tom-

Well, Mr. Psychologist I really don't know what to say to you. Sometimes you really get on my nerves, and you bother me constantly, but I still think of you as a friend; Except the time that you lied about the Styx concert. Too bad I'm going on July 21! Have a nice summer, and keep in touch; 361-6550: you know where I live! Good luck in college, and with whatever you do in life. Remember - I get to be your accountant!

Love,

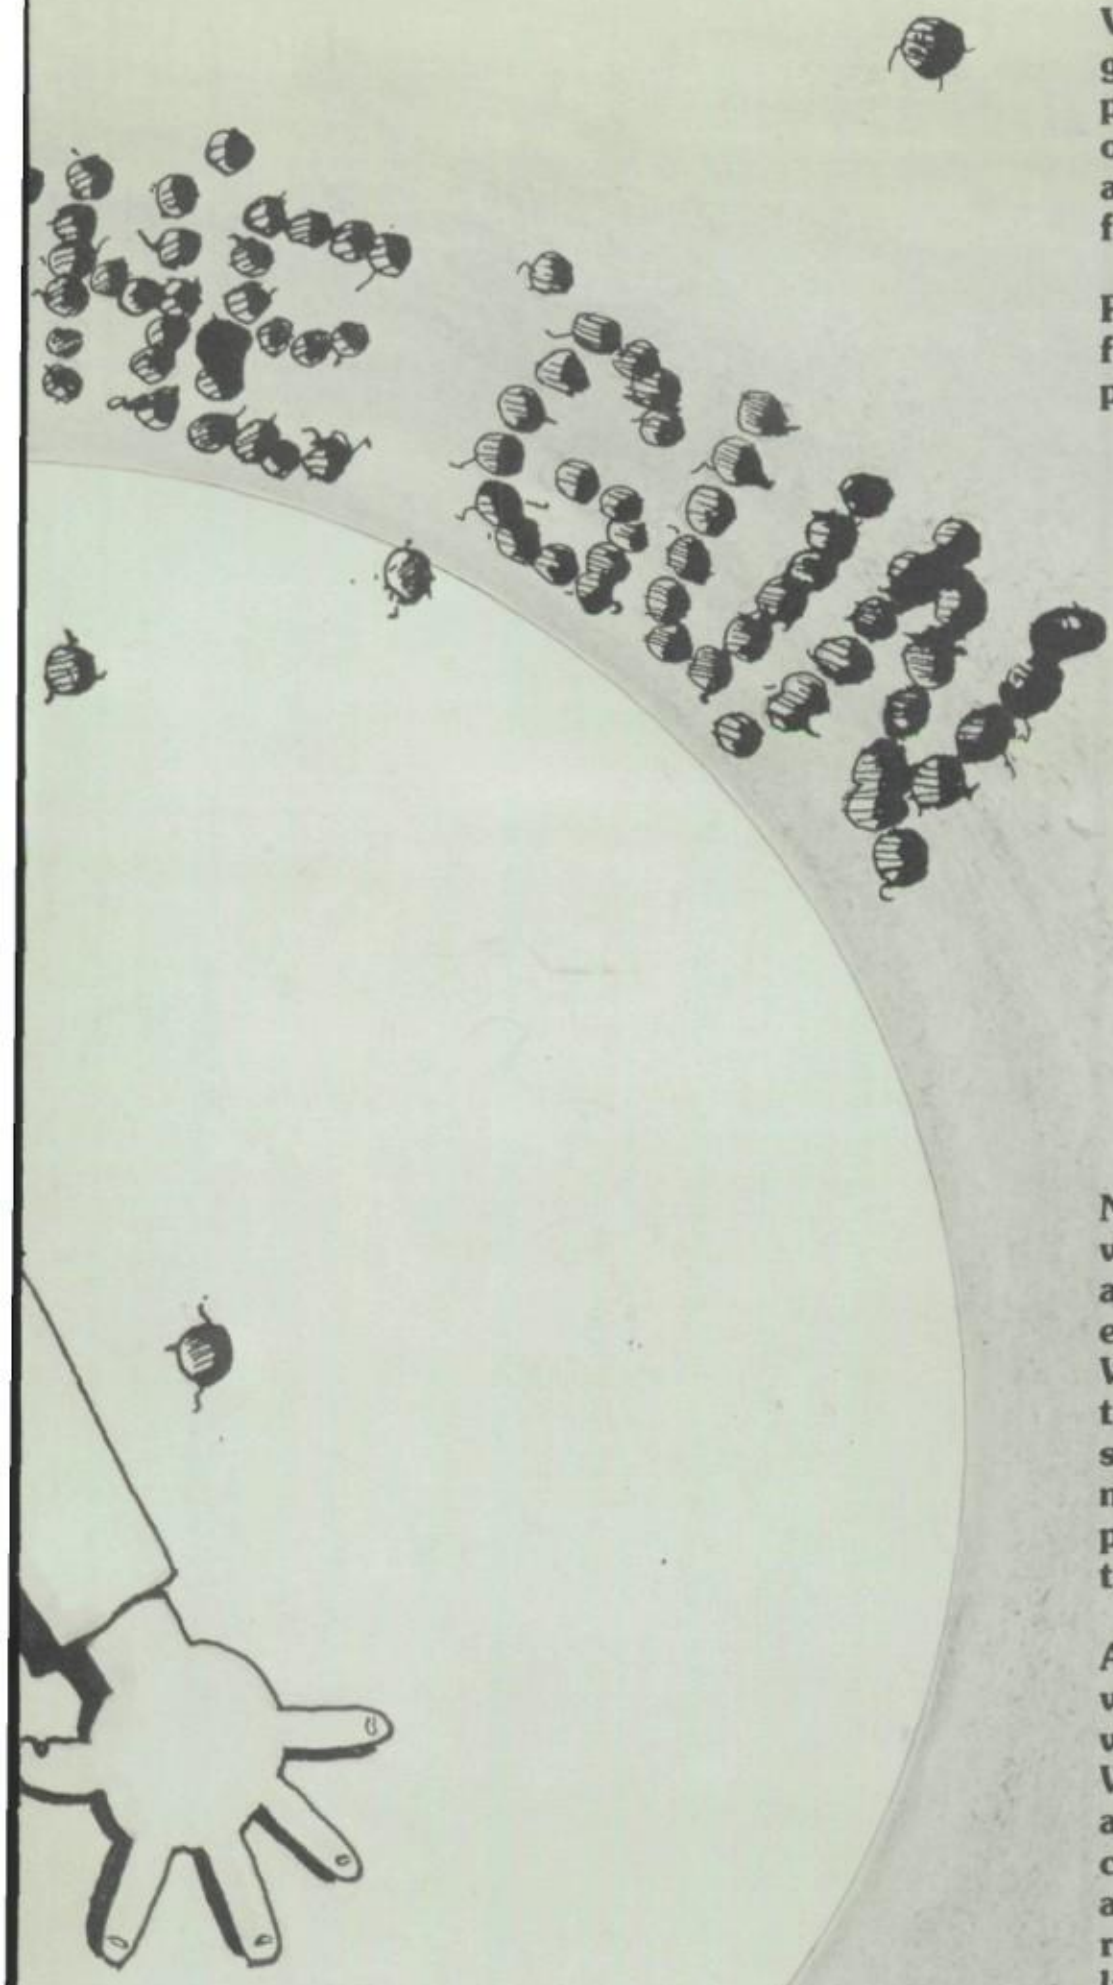
CONT.
I'm not sure what else to write, because I think you know the way I feel about you. No, I don't hate you - in fact, I think you are the only boy I can relate to because so many are so immature, but you aren't. Bud you're not too mature either, you show that side of you in accounting and psych. I still don't see why you like to touch my neck! Maybe you like to see me cringe and be scared to death. I found that out when we went to Grad Nite and you made me go on Space Mountain. I hate that ride! If we ever go to Magic Mountain then you will find out how scared I Get! Disneyland is nothing



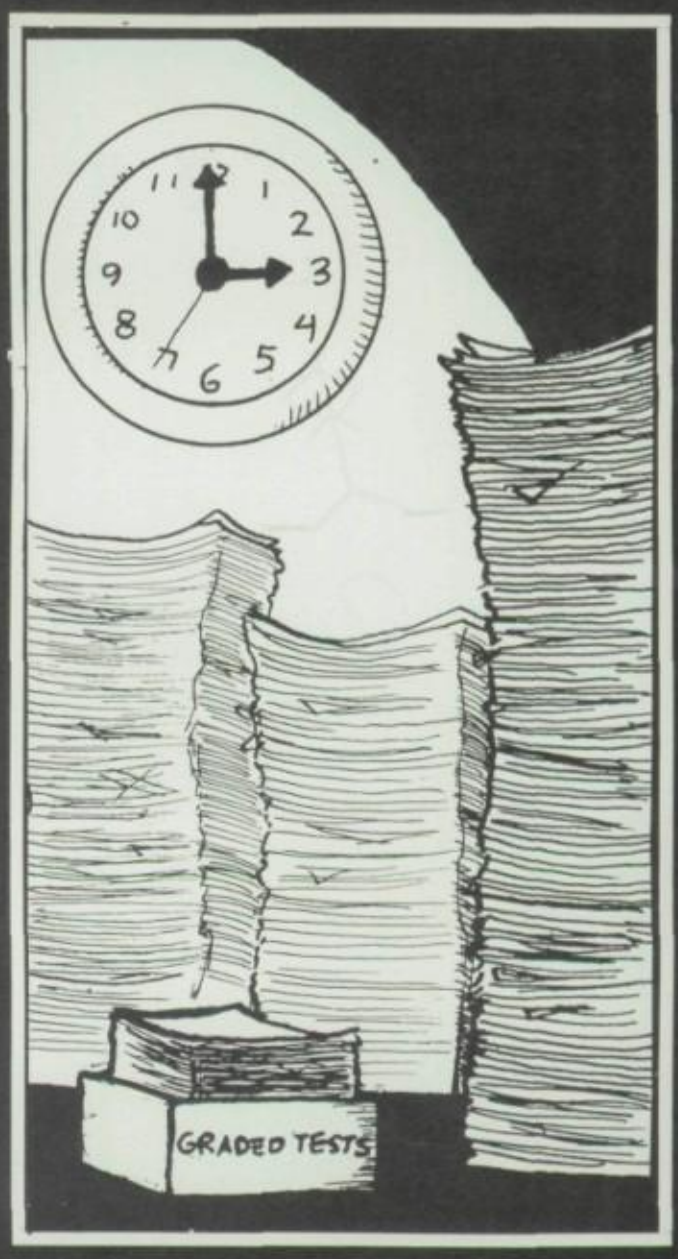
Various situations put us under the gun. Inner stress and pressure are part of our lives. People have their own ways of dealing with pressure and our challenge is to deal with it from a Christian perspective.

Pressures come to us in many forms. For students at L.H.L.V. pressure can be:

1. Rushing from class to class with only a three-minute break and knowing that the eighth demerit will place you on after-school duty.
2. Finishing that term paper or yearbook layout before the deadline.
3. Being challenged by teachers, advisers, parents, and coaches to reach a higher level of intensity in school activities.
4. Striving to live an exempliary Christian life, while all the while being bombarded by worldly values that encourage conformity to a self-centered existence.

Nationally, we are under the gun as we fearfully watch the crime rate and unemployment soar while our economic productivity decreases. We also feel the squeeze of a technological society and rush constantly to keep pace with it. Internationally, ballistic missiles have placed us in the middle of a nuclear target zone.

As Christians attending L.H.L.V., we have hope despite looking into what might be termed a gun barrel. We realize that these problems are a result of our sin and that Christ came to forgive us and to make us a part of His Kingdom. With the reassurance of God's promises we live to bring God's love and grace to all people and to try to improve the world situation. We have Christ as our reason for living — "Under the Gun."



FACULTY UNDER STRESS

4

ADMINISTRATION

Pr. Wm. R. Hampton — Principal

Administration's biggest dilemmas were, "being able to deal with a lot of little problems that all seem to come at once," commented Mr. Marty. "Due to the economy, enrollment is slighty down. This has strained our operational budget," remarked Pastor Hampton. Mrs. Schmidt felt "the biggest problem is that in order to accomplish anything, you have to colaborate with a lot of other people. This means many phone calls, waiting for calls back, and often getting things done much more slowly than you would like to." Their main goal was "to see the completion of the long-awaited auditorium/gymnasium," according to Pr. Hampton. "Another goal was to see that the athletic program is run in an organized manner so that the coaches can concentrate on coaching without having to deal with administrative details," pointed out Mrs. Schmidt.

Mrs. M. Schmidt — Athletic Director

Mr. L. Marty — Vice Principal

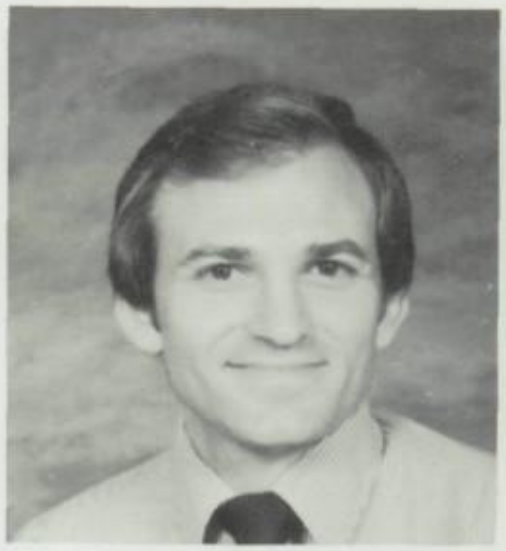
Tom,
It was fun having you in my class. I wish you well in all that you do. May God continue to bless you.
H. Agnew

FACULTY

Below are questions asked of the faculty and some of their responses.

1. What are the biggest problems you face as a school teacher this year?
Mr. Woodburn explained, "A lack of experience has been somewhat of an obstacle to overcome. Mapping a passage through endless new experience as a new teacher has been a greater task in size and complexity than imagined." Mr. Agnew explained, "A teacher's lament is always how a certain 10% of the students (those who don't care and thus become a discipline problem) can occupy and consume 80% of a teacher's time and effort." Many teachers agree the biggest problem was to keep the classes interesting and challenging to their students.

2. What do you see as your main goals concerning the school and the implementation of school programs during the school year?

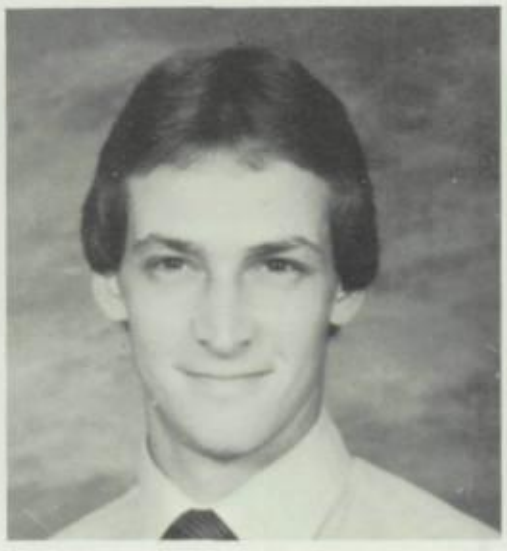


Mr. Agnew — Geometry, Math Lab, Cons. Math, PE
Mr. Barlow — Latin
Mr. Bretscher — Art, Drafting, Yearbook, Math Lab
Mr. Craig — German
Mr. Geach — Band, Choir, Musicianship, Math Lab

Pr. Hampton — Sac. Studies
Pr. Heiderich — English
Mr. Klawiter — World History, Sac. Studies, Journalism
Mrs. Mabey — Typing, Shorthand, Bookkeeping
Mr. Marty — Weight Training

Tom -
Thanks for helping to make teaching so much fun! I really enjoyed having you in class. Best wishes for the future.
Mr. K...
Schmidt

Sgt. Maj. Nicolopoulos — Drill Team
Capt. Nordhill — Naval Science
Mr. Rode — Algebra, Math Analysis
Mr. Sampson — Spanish
Mr. Schmidt — Biology, Chemistry, Physics
Mrs. K. Schmidt — English



Mrs. M. Schmidt — PE
Mrs. Shuler — Cooking, Sewing, Bachelor Survival
Mr. White — PE
Pr. Wobrock — Sac. Studies
Mr. Woodburn — Sr. Soc. Science, U.S. History
Mrs. Johnson — Secretary

Mr. Sampson stated his main goals concerning the school were wanting his students to learn. Mr. Klawiter had a goal fo more participation at sporting events, indicative of a more co-hesive student body. Captain Nordhill related his goal in this way. "I am shooting for the Lutheran High N.J.R.O.T.C. programs to receive top grades during it's annual inspection and to receive recognition as the top N.J.R.O.T.C. unit in the area."

3. What aspects do you see as new, exciting or positive about the school year? Mrs. Maybe told us F.B.L.A. was trying to earn money to contribute to the building of a new gym. Mr. Agnew felt the creation of Math Lab was positive for the teaching of students weak in basic math skills. Mr. Bretscher was happy to report the beginning of a J.V. baseball program with eight games scheduled for the team. Most teachers agreed the construction of the auditorium/gymnasium was an exciting aspect.

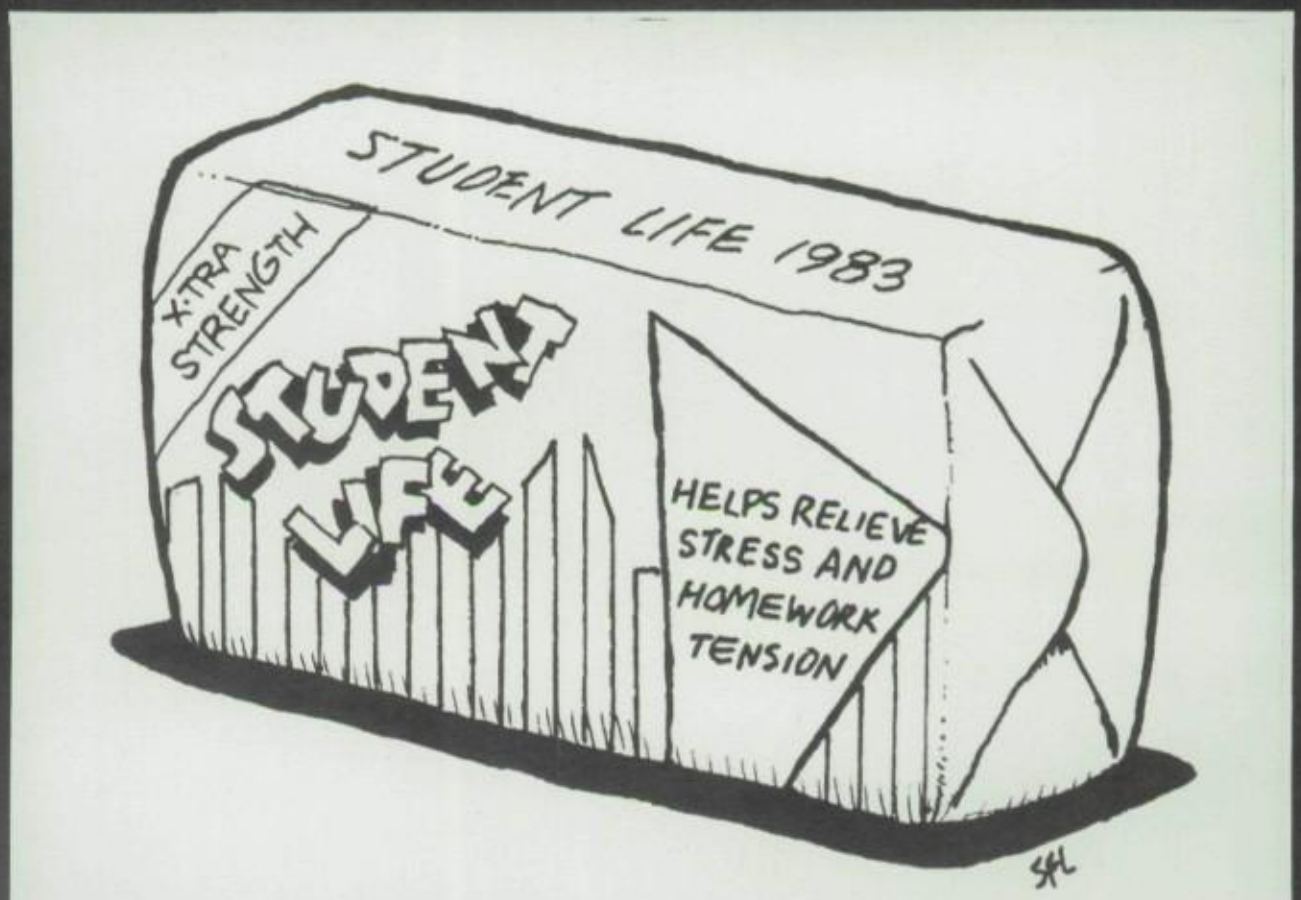
NEW AND IMPROVED



RELAXING STUDENT LIFE

A.S.B.

The Executive Council of the A.S.B. has had fun once again trying to plan worthwhile student activities. Under the leadership of our able-bodied president, Brian Weatherford, who has done an exceptional job at fulfilling his campaign promises since elected, the council strived to help each student in their mental and spiritual growth. Combining a variety of events like the Homecoming and Spirit Week, and approving other school related activities, they hope to continue the growing success of L.H.L.V.

NAVAL JUNIOR RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS

Lutheran High School is one of 233 high schools in the United States that includes Naval Science in its curriculum. The U.S. Congress created the NJROTC program in 1966 as a means of training young leaders to better understand the responsibilities of citizenship in a democratic society. The NJROTC has been a part of the curriculum of Lutheran High School since the school was founded. It includes both classroom instruction and military drill, with emphasis placed upon conduct, personal appearance, and leadership training.

In addition to the corps curriculum, NJROTC cadets annually visit a U.S. Navy ship for orientation (with a side trip to Magic Mountain), spend a week at "Boot Camp," hold a formal military ball, and complete the school year with the traditional Awards Night and Change of Command Ceremony. During the school year, many advanced cadets take advantage of the opportunity to take cruises on U.S. Navy ships.

The 1982-83 yearbook staff consisted of five people and one teacher's aide.

Joe Simpson was the only returning member, and an answer source to many of our yearbook inquiries. Jennifer Anderson accomplished much work, as long as it did not require captions. Stacey Morgan was just a dandy person to work with. Her bubbly personality put us all at ease. Putting his tremendous artwork ability to work, Steve Lossing did the visual aspects of the yearbook. As T.A. of the yearbook staff, Dave Smith was always asked to give ideas and help on layouts when deadlines came around.

JOURNALISM

Journalism was not a class. It was an extra-curricular program with meetings held at lunch and after school. There were three people on staff. They were: Beverly Newman — Editor-in-Chief, Tammy Seibert — Feature Editor, and Tim Marousek — Sports Editor.

The paper underwent a few changes. It was eight pages long, making more room for sports features and giving other students a chance to participate with the Trojan Sword.

BAND — CHOIR

Band and choir worked hard preparing for the concerts and tours they were to perform. They produced an Epiphany concert at St. Luke's, Claremont, in January. Later in the year they toured grammar schools, hoping to get the younger students interested in music. Lastly, they rehearsed for a spring concert, which was held in May.

The choir also sang in Wednesday chapel services which made them more enjoyable. Many times the band also played at football and basketball games.

CLUB ACTIVITY

CHAPEL COMMITTEE — CHAPEL SET-UP

The chapel committee meets every other week. The committee works out the chapel schedule just as if it were a regular church service. The chapel committee's main concern is witnessing, spiritual growth and a year with a little variety to please both the teachers and the students. The chapel committee's members consist of Wayne Hittinger, Dave Short, Tammy Seibert, Deanna Burke, Darrin Storkson, Mike Maynard, Scott Anderson, Rick Barnett and their adviser Pastor Heidrich.

F.B.L.A.

The primary goal of F.B.L.A. is to expand the business attitudes of young persons to prepare them for today's business society.

F.B.L.A. had several activities. They include candy grams, balloon contest, homecoming carnations, and of course, career day.

HIGH CALIBRE

SENIORS

Seniors are unparalleled. They are looked up to by underclassmen and have worked their way up through the ranks of required education, but along with the prestige and respect comes pressure.

Seniors are under the gun to be a good example to underclassmen. They are looked up to as role models and are sometimes sought out for guidance. Plans for the future need to be made which include considering whether or not to take the S.A.T., what college to apply to, if any, and what kind of career to pursue.

Along with the added pressure comes added privileges. Escaping the sometimes mundane life of school with off campus privileges and free periods are appreciated by all seniors. This is the largest class to graduate from Lutheran High in its tenth year. Soon the well-meant pressures of Lutheran High will be replaced with the pressures of adult life.

I still owe you 10 minutes. But I Don't think you will ever get it. It seems like It Ban a long time at Hip school We have had alot is to risk appearing the fool.

To laugh
To weep
is to risk appearing sentimental.
To reach out for another
is to risk involvement.
To expose feelings
is to risk exposing your true self.
To place your ideas, your dreams, before the crowd is to risk loss.
To love
is to risk not being loved in return.
To live
is to risk dying.
To hope
is to risk despair.
To try at all
is to risk failure.
But to risk we must,
Because the greatest hazard in life
is to risk nothing.
The man, the woman, who risks nothing,
does nothing, has nothing,
is nothing.

HOMECOMING
CRAZINESS

Craziness began Monday, October 23. This day kicked off the five days before homecoming called spirit week. Students went all out to show their spirit by dressing up each day in some pretty crazy outfits.

During chapel on Wednesday the queen's court was announced along with the king's court. The courts were chosen by the juniors and seniors who voted in their English classes. The queen's court consisted of Margaret Griffiths, Annette Lampman, Sherry Mawhorter, Stacey Morgan, and Valerie Wood. The two Anderson brothers, Mark and Scott were a part of the king's court along with John Mathison, Brett Midkiff, and Garth Smith.

At Friday's pep-rally, students really went wild cheering and showing spirit. During competition between the fall sports, Dave Smith managed to shove a whole banana in his mouth. Following the competition Scott Anderson was crowned king.

Family and friends gathered to watch the game Saturday against Montclair Prep and the crowning of the queen. In an exciting first half, Mike Maynard sacked the opposing quarterback which forced a fumble. Mike's efforts were rewarded with a broken nose. John Barbee then recovered the fumble and ran for a touchdown. Unfortunately, these were the only points scored by the Trojans who lost to the Knights, 46 to 6.

During halftime, the five princesses were paraded past the bleachers in corvettes provided by the car club at LeRoy's Boys' Home and then onto the platform where Audrey Timpkin crowned Sherry Mawhorter queen. The week and Homecoming day were climaxed with a dance held in the Damien gym. Its theme was "Up Where We Belong" and the music was provided by "Stymie."

The Varsity Volleyball team consisted of six seniors and one sophomore. They were an experienced team which made them very competitive. Each player worked hard, and collectively the players improved throughout the year.

The team was led by the consistent play of Connie Ogg and Jennifer Job. Stacey Morgan and Cathy Downey shared the spiking honors with Deanna Burke shining as one of the top servers. The team's most impressive victory was over a good team from Melodyland.

JUNIOR VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

The J. V. team was a fun and bubbly group with much enthusiasm. They had little experience but made up for it with a willingness to learn. Stephanie Skov was exceptional in her determination to excell and developed through the course of the season as the standout performer of the team. Debbie Lightfoot was another who demonstrated great improvement. Cheryl McComb and Lori Geneser handled the setting duties. The leadership of the team was carried by Sally Wheeler and captain Janet Jahn.

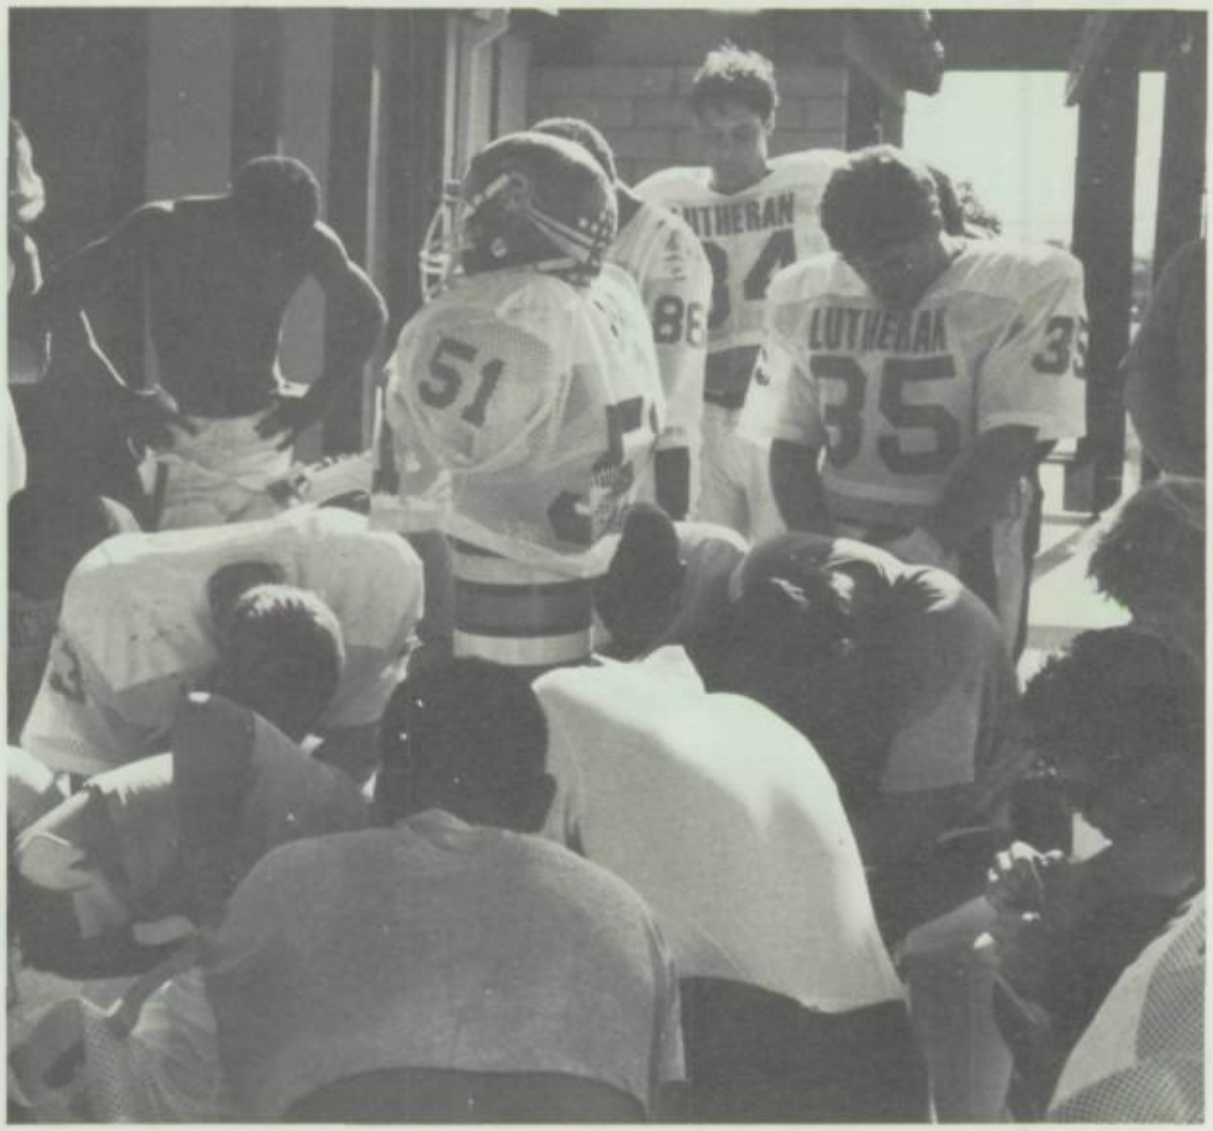
VARSITY GOES TO C.I.F.



The Trojans finished the season with a 5-4 record, the first winning regular season ever. The Trojan defense totaled three shutouts while the offense scored 52 points in one game, the most ever! With only one loss in league play, the Trojans assured themselves a spot in the C.I.F. playoffs.

The team's hopes were high even though they were to face top seeded Brethren. The final result ended Brethren 33 L.H.S. 12.

John Barbee and Brian Weatherford received the most valuable players award while Scott Dom and Craig McComb were the Trojan warriors. Mike Maynard was most improved for the Trojans. There were a total of eleven players making the all league team, they included first team Joe Simpson WR, Scott Dom C, Tom Holtz OT, and Craig McComb DE. The second team was Dave Smith QB, John Barbee RB, Brian Weatherford MLB-TE, Robert Rodriguez OG, Mike Maynard OT, Dwight Miley RB, David Chamberlain DL, and Garth Smith was Honorable mention at SLB.

J.V. FOOTBALL DISCOVERS TALENT

The J.V. football team found new talent in many of it's members. With only ten returning players from last year, the season began with little experience. Lee Anderson led the running game with Scott Smith. Until this year, neither had any running back experience. From the very first day every team member as well as the coaches exibited a willingness to work hard and push themselves, therefore, improving every game.

In Arrowhead league competition, their record was 2 and 3 with wins over Webb (13-9) and CSDR (14-0). Lee Anderson, awarded Most Valuable Player, led in tackles with 69 and was followed closely by Scott Smith, Greg Bielfuss, and David Crozier. Tom Stueve led the offensive line at the center position and gained the Trojan Warrior Award, while David Crozier received Most Improved.

WRESTLING

Led by a large group of seniors, the Trojan Wrestling team completed one of its strongest seasons. After dropping the first league dual meet to CSDR, the Trojans defeated everyone else in league and dual meets, including the schools' first victory ever over Sherman Indian 35-33. This placed them in a three-way tie for first, going into the Arrowhead league tournament with a team-best dual meet record in league of 5-1. At the league tournament the Trojans finished third, 2 pts. behind C.S.D.R. and 20 pts. behind Sherman Indian. League champions were Fionan Gannon, Mark Anderson and John Barbee. Runner-ups were Victor Tejera and Scott Dom. All these wrestlers qualified for CIF. Third placers and CIF alternates were Dennis Breshears, Darrin Storkson, and Kevin Hendon. Placing fourth were Rich Ayoub and Tom Holtz.

WOMEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

The team was led by five seniors, Jennifer Job, Connie Ogg, Deanna Burke, Derenda DeRose, and Gaylene Rice. The seniors brought much needed experience to the team which was rounded out by one junior, Linda Hoffmann and one sophomore, Kim Schaeffer. The non-league competition this season was extremely difficult as the Trojans faced teams such as Bonita and Ontario high schools. Midway through league competition the team began to achieve consistency. Teamwork was the key element for success in the second half and became the major goal for the team. The high points of the season were the wins over Heights Lutheran and Eagle Mountain, and a close game against Serrano which was eventually lost in overtime.

WOMEN'S J.V. BASKETBALL

During their 1982-83 season, the Junior Varsity girls' basketball team had to deal with more than a grueling ten game Arrowhead League schedule. Practicing outside after school, the athletes had to weather the elements, play with not so round basketballs, and break in a new coach. Despite these obstacles the girls worked hard on improving their basketball skills. They finished with a 5-7 season and a 5-5 league record for a third place finish. The record is very deceiving of the team's accomplishments. All the losses, but one, were lost by 3 points or less. The high points of the season were the two victories over arch rival Orange Lutheran.

MEN'S VARSITY BASKETBALL

The varsity basketball team had a record of 8-13 overall and 3-9 in league, in retrospect, a somewhat disappointing, but enjoyable year. Despite their record there were a number of positive items that highlighted the season. They included: 1) A third place finish at the L.A. Lutheran Tournament. 2) Beating Mendenhall, who was ranked fifth in C.I.F. (without question our best game of the season.) 3) Beating Orange Lutheran twice!

The most consistent player was Dave Smith, who averaged 18.1 points per game. Dave Polzin, Brett Midkiff, and Craig McComb were the top rebounders.

MEN'S J.V. BASKETBALL

The team was classified as young and inexperienced but willing to work. With only two sophomores returning from last season (Tim Marousek, Chris Pickford) the J.V.'s were lacking court time. The offense provided by Mike Vaughn, Art Jones, and Mel Summers kept them alive in many games. Excellent scrappy defense was exhibited by Matt Heiderich, Fernando Vallé, and Rex Rhorer.

Todd Swanson and Tim Marousek played consistently well on both ends of the court starting all year. The center position was filled by Mel Summers and David Crozier, both of whom improved greatly as the year progressed. Darron Story, a slow starter, came on at the end of the season with some excellent offense. John Strasser consistently rebounded when they needed it the most.

The J.V. team worked hard and learned much about team play from good competition. Next year, with most players returning, should prove to be excellent.

GYM BECOMES FUNCTIONAL

A gym for LHLV has always been a part of the building plan. A gymnasium will make the school more functional and complete. The gym will be used by the school for chapel, assemblies, PE, and after school athletics. It will also be available to congregations for such things as dinners, sports activities, large services and so on, and it is hoped that the gym will be a center for youth activities of all the area congregations.

Two-hundred-thousand dollars were spent for storm drains, site preparation, architectural fees, outdoor athletic courts, retaining walls, fences and the like. This prepared the area for construction.

Phase One should be completed by Spring 1983. This phase requires an additional four-hundred and fifty-thousand dollars and will give us a functional gym/auditorium along with parking lots and landscaping.

The big event, Tilt Up Day (TUD), was originally set for Summer 1982, but was delayed until December 10 because of an unanticipated soil problem and permit difficulties. When TUD finally came to be, students and faculty viewed in awe as the immense walls were lifted into place.

Another four-hundred and fifty-thousand dollars are needed for Phase Two. This will add on to the south side of the gym a full service kitchen, snack bar, and public bathrooms. On the east side, extra locker rooms with showers, a wrestling mat room, and an athletic director's office will be installed.

VARSITY CHEER

The 1982-83 cheerleaders were full of spirit and excitement. The varsity squad consisted of six returning girls, five seniors and one junior. The J.V. squad members were all newcomers to cheerleading. There were five of them, two were juniors and three sophomores. This was the girls' first full year with their new advisor, Mrs. Kristen Schmidt.

This year has gone by fast but not with a lot of memories. hope it has been as memorial for you as it has been for me
Nice knowing you these last couple of years. Hope you are successful thru your life and good luck

Tom,
Our senior year is over. Oh no!
Now it is time to panic. I love gone through quite a lot together and its neat having a friend who is shorter than me. We might have shared more time if you would have stayed in Bio 7th. The years have been great and I hope that there are many more to come. Good luck always.
Love,
Deanna

Tom

gone. I learned quite a few new things this year like how to get out of school early, ride
your motorcycle in the hallways, and diamond ban. Good luck in your future endeavors. Keep in touch
see you college.
